

01 / THE SOURCE: Birthing a Creation

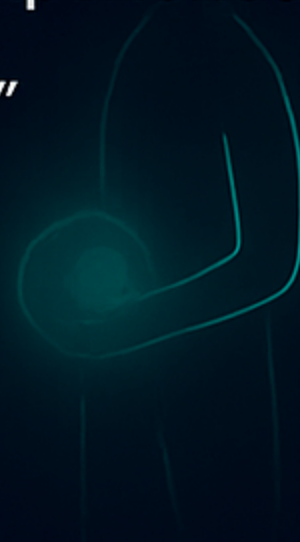

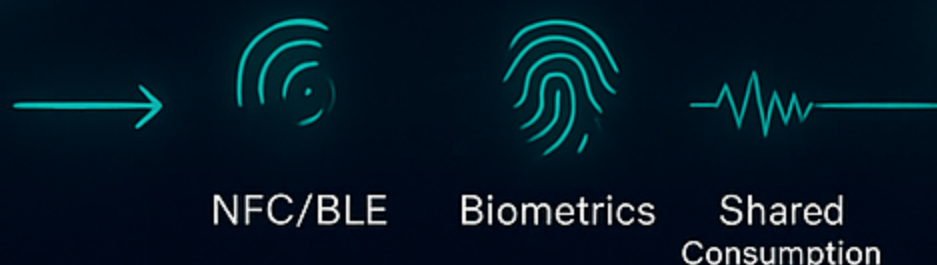

Content Begins with a Source

A creator introduces their unique work—a song, photo, or idea—into the ecosystem. This Connection-Encoded Media (CEM) is given a permanent, blockchain-verified identity, forever linking it to its human origin.

02 / THE SPORE SPREAD: The Proof of Shared Experience

The “Share to Truly Share” Protocol

03 / THE MYCELIUM NETWORK: A World of Connection

Building The Mycelium Network

Every shared experience builds an authentic social graph of human connection. Nothing in this ecosystem can exist except through these real-world moments.

It is a digital world built entirely from a foundation of peace and presence, where every creation can be traced back to its Source through a chain of verified connection.
